

Vol. 1, No. 10
January 28, 2009

Psychological Harassment: A Cause for Concern

For several years now, the Intersyndicale des femmes has been deeply concerned about developments surrounding the issue of psychological harassment. At its annual planning meeting last September, representatives of the organizations that make up the Intersyndicale des femmes examined the question of how to handle complaints of psychological harassment within each organization, considering the duty we have to represent each union member equitably.